

Civil Service Club, Milestones 1971-2021

1971

Civil Service Club started out as Singapore Civil Service Recreation and Sports Council, later shorten to Singapore Civil Service Sports Council (SCSSC). The Council was formed on 25 October, and was set up by the late Minister of Finance, Mr Hon Sui Sen. The Council was instituted to promote sports, fitness and recreational activities among public officers.

1972

The Dempsey Clubhouse at Dempsey Road was officially opened in April. In the same month, the Council started to organise a variety of sports for public officers.

1973

Inauguration of the inter-territorial games between Singapore and Malaysia public officers. Games were held twice a year on a home and away basis.

1974

Inter-territorial games included women officers for the first time, a recognition of women's growing involvement in sports.

1976

The Portsdown Clubhouse was taken over by the Council in January.

The Junior Civil Service Association was absorbed as a branch of the SCSSC in April. The Association had a history dating back to 1915. It catered predominantly to the rank and file of the civil service through inter-ministry sports and games.

The inter-territorial games between Singapore and Malaysia were changed from a bi-annual series to an annual meet in which Singapore and Malaysia alternated as host.

1978

Launch of SCSSC's first printed newsletter which replaced the former cyclostyled version. The newsletter was printed quarterly and contained news on events, social and sports activities
